17. What more would you like to tell NCR or the community ABOUT YOUR STAKEHOLDER INVOLVEMENT? What are you doing that is NEW OR PARTICULARLY SUCCESSFUL TO REACH RESIDENTS and others?

New in 2019, welcomed community gardens to Dickman Park in cooperation with the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board. The garden boxes are accessible and residents have already signed up for the available spots. The gardens are especially important as the number of residents living in rental properties increases, offering livability options and a way for residents to connect.

Completed initial phase of planning for use of park dedication fees – projects will increase activity and ages serviced at Dickman Park with the addition of pickleball courts, grills, and benches; benches and a drinking fountain are proposed for the regional parks. The next phase of planning will use a survey to engage more of the rental residents.

Traffic calming garden was installed at the intersection of Broadway/University in partnership with the Sheridan Neighborhood and MNDot. Thirty volunteers joined us for the planting day including volunteers from a nearby brewery, the Dangerous Man. The garden addresses a traffic concern and also advances the community priority to improve the environment.
